

Business Builder

A free, virtual tool to support early-stage and established businesses

Hello...

“Running your own business is an exciting, sometimes daunting experience and so having the right support at the right time is absolutely vital. With so much of our economic recovery dependent on the UK’s business owners, we are incredibly proud to be able to provide this support, whether you’re starting a new business or pivoting an existing one, free of charge, through Business Builder.

By putting the tools and guidance to grow at their fingertips, business owners can upskill at their own pace in a way that allows them to stay in control as they start, scale and succeed. We are with them every step of the way and look forward to supporting thousands of new businesses and entrepreneurs over the coming years. ”

Gordon Merrylees
Managing Director, Royal Bank Entrepreneurship

What's on offer?

Business Builder is a completely free online tool which is entirely self-serve and can be accessed 24/7 through the dedicated online portal. Designed to support entrepreneurs and business owners to upskill and develop themselves and their business at a time and pace that suits them.

Users can access a blended programme of support consisting of three key pillars;

Digital Learning

A growing library of action-focused digital learning, catering for a wide range of business needs and learning styles, so individuals can consume the most relevant learning to them.

Online Community

Supporting users to expand their local and national network through our dedicated Facebook community and access peer to peer support, update and thought leadership relevant to them.

Wrap Around Events

Enhancing the digital learning, our expert team run a calendar of immersive, online events and workshops to upskill users, bring the community together and facilitate key areas of development.

Who's it for?

Business Builder has been developed to support businesses and entrepreneurs at all stages (whether just starting out or an established business looking to make a change). It's completely free and you don't even have to be a Royal Bank customer to join.

Business Builder supports:

- Idea validation - helping users to explore and validate of new business ideas or pivot their existing business
- Business essentials – giving users the knowledge, tools & techniques to put the business processes in place
- Entrepreneur development – helping users to develop themselves at the same time as their business
- Growth strategies – supporting users to put sustainable growth plans in place, identifying risks and opportunities

Let's go into a bit more detail...

Digital Learning

“ I would recommend any early-stage business owner to sign up to it ”

Sam Patchitt,
CEO, Finstant

Users have access to a growing library of digital learning covering a range of topics from Revenue Streams, Customer Segments through to Self-Awareness and Mindset.

Each module is made up of several video chapters, giving users some theory, practical tools and real life experience from business owners who have been there and got the t-shirt.

Entrepreneurs can download PDF workbooks for each module to implement the learning into their business through activities, tools and key actions.

And to keep users on their toes, there is also a quick quiz at the end of each chapter to test their knowledge.

Online Community

“ It has already become a supportive network of ideas and help for my fledgling business, particularly at this challenging time ”

Caroline Phillips-Urch,
CEO, The Yoga Crow

Our dedicated Facebook community helps users to expand their local and national network.

With regular Q&A sessions with our Business Builder Managers and bitesize content, giving users the chance to ask questions, share challenges and interact with fellow entrepreneurs and businesses right across the UK.

We have a thriving and diverse community of thousands of entrepreneurs from multiple sectors, backgrounds and skill sets helping users to connect with the right people at the right time. No matter whether they're looking to upskill, get feedback, engage with new people or simply observe, you could find it via the community.

Wrap Around Events

“ Business Builder has really propelled us to where we are today ”

Kaitlin Fritz,
CEO, Musemio

Business Builder events are designed to support and challenge users to develop the right foundations for their business; whether that's how to write a great pitch, how to define their Business Model or navigate through a changing environment.

Each 60-minute event is tailored to meet a specific business need, offering attendees an opportunity to upskill in the company of other like-minded business owners, share experiences, and work through individual and group exercises to implement the learning into their own business.

Each series of events run on a five week cycle so users can attend the events that are most relevant to them at the time.
